From Saturday January 3, to Tuesday January 6, 1756.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th Day of December 1755.

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majeſty's Proclamation, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of November laſt, "For recalling and prohibiting Seamen "from ſerving Foreign Princes and States; for "giving Encouragement to Seamen and Able-"bodied Landmen, to enter themſelves on Board "His Majeſty's Ships of War; for granting "Rewards for diſcovering ſuch Seamen as ſhall "conceal themſelves; and alſo for taking up all "Straggling Seamen;" His Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe and declare, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and alſo that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, ſhould be paid to every ſuch Seaman and Landman reſpectively, who ſhould, on or before the Thirty firſt Day of this Inſtant December, voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by the ſaid Proclamation; as likewiſe that the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, ſhould be paid to any Perſon who ſhould, on or before the ſaid Thirty firſt Day of this Inſtant, diſcover any Seaman, or Seamen, who ſhould conceal themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman, or Seamen, ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's Service: And whereas the Time limited for paying the ſaid Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring; and it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome longer Time; His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, That the Time limited by the ſaid Proclamation, for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the ſaid Thirty Firſt Day of this Inſtant December, to the Thirty Firſt Day of January next incluſive. And that the ſaid reſpective Bounties and Rewards be continued to be paid by the Perſons, and at the Times, directed by His Majeſty's aforeſaid Proclamation. W. Sharpe.

[Price Two-Pence.]

Petersbourg, December 9. Saturday laſt, being the Acceſſion of her Imperial Majeſty, it was obſerved at this Court with the uſual Solemnities. All Perſons of Diſtinction went there in the Morning to congratulate the Empreſs; and at Night her own Company of Guards (which was originally formed of thoſe Perſons who attended and aſſiſted her Imperial Majeſty to mount the Throne) were drawn up in the Gallery of the Palace; and between Eight and Nine the Empreſs appeared, and all the Officers and private Soldiers had the Honour of kiſſing her Hand; after which they all went into the great Hall of the Palace, and had the Honour of ſupping with her Imperial Majeſty.

Turin, Dec. 13. On Tueſday laſt the 9th Inſtant, at half an Hour after Two, there was an Earthquake in this City, which was felt particularly at the Palace and in Po-Street; it laſted a Minute and an half, but did no Kind of Damage: It was alſo felt at Chiers, Jorea, Novara, and at Milan. Prayers are offered up in all the Churches for the ſafe Delivery of the Dutcheſs, who has entered into the ninth Month of her Pregnancy.

Madrid, Dec. 15. His Catholick Majeſty has been pleaſed to nominate the Count de Maceda, Grandee of Spain, and Lieutenant General of his Armies, to be his Ambaſſador at the Court of Portugal.

Vienna, Dec. 15. The Empreſs Queen, being perfectly recovered, was Yeſterday churched in Form; upon which Occaſion there was a very numerous and ſplendid Court; and their Imperial Majeſties, with the Archduke Joſeph, and the eldeſt Archdutcheſs, dined in Publick, and in the Evening went to the Opera. There was likewiſe a Promotion of Privy Counſellors and Chambellans. In the Number of the former was Lieutenant General Count Oſtein, Brother to the Elector of Mentz.

Hamburgh, Dec. 19. The Biſhop of Lubeck, with his Princeſs, arrived here the Day before Yeſterday from their Reſidence at Eutin, and propoſe to paſs Part of the Winter Seaſon with the Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein, the Biſhop's Mother. The Mortality of the Cattle, which had ceaſed in ſome Degree in this Neighbourhood, has anew manifeſted itſelf, and great Numbers die daily.

Venice, Dec. 19. Some Days ago Lieutenant General Graham arrived here to take upon him the Command of the Troops of this Republick. Here has been a Triduo, or Solemnity of Publick Worſhip for three Days, with Prayers for fair Weather, for the Neceſſities of this State, and the the Welfare of all; and for averting the Divine Judgements in Earthquakes, Inundations, and all other Publick Calamities. It concluded this Day with a Religious Proceſſion, in which the Doge and Nobles attended. The Waters of the Po have been ſo high, that ſome Troops of this State were ſent thither to aſſiſt the People, as it was feared its Banks would be broken, and the Country overflowed; but happily the Waters fell without doing any Damage.

Dreſden, Dec. 21. On Account of the terrible Earthquake which happened on the 1ſt of November, it is remarkable that the Waters in the Baths at Carlsbad and Toplitz in Bohemia, did not riſe that Day, nor for ſome Days after, but, when they returned, were hotter than uſual. The Effects of the Earthquake were likewiſe felt in the Mines of this Country.

Hamburgh, Dec. 23. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein, Mother to the preſent King of Sweden, who had been for ſome Time paſt in a decaying State of Health, died here, the Night before laſt, in the 74th Year of her Age.

Bruſſels, Dec. 23. Beſides the Augmentation in the French Cavalry, of Five Men per Troop, which is to be compleated by the firſt of February, there is to be another of Five more againſt the firſt of April. It is computed that the Number of Horſes required for theſe Augmentations, and for remounting the Cavalry, will amount to about Fifteen Thouſand, beſides Eight Thouſand more that will be wanting for the Artillery, and which it is ſaid are to be provided immediately; though, according to the lateſt Advices from Douay, no Orders have been yet given (as uſual) in the Neighbouring Villages, for preparing Stables for them.

Dreſden, Dec. 24. The Report that the Plague has broke out in Poland is confirmed, but varies ſo much in the Circumſtances, that nothing can be given out for certain relating to it.

Dreſden, Dec. 28. Yeſterday about Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, her Highneſs the Electoral Princeſs was ſafely delivered of a Prince, which was immediately declared by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon upon the Ramparts. At Six of the Clock in the Evening the Prince was baptized, and this Day Te Deum is to be ſung in all the Churches, and the Cannons are again to be fired.

Bruſſels, Dec. 30. The French Troops continue to remain very quiet in their Garriſons upon the Frontiers, and we don't hear that any more are expected from the inward Parts of the Kingdom. All the Letters received from Dunkirk within theſe three Days, inform us, that the intended Augmentation in the Companies of Marines has been lately countermanded. On Friday laſt, between the Hours of Twelve and One in the Morning, three Shocks of an Earthquake were felt at this Place, which occaſioned great Terror among the Inhabitants, though, providentially, attended with no Manner of Miſchief. The ſame was felt more or leſs, as we are now informed, in all the neighbouring Towns, but we don't hear of any Accidents. A Placart was publiſhed here Yeſterday, which inflicts conſiderable Fines on thoſe who wear Swords, or aſſume Titles, or Coats of Arms, &c. to which they have no Right.

Whitehall, January 6.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Charles Lawrence, Eſq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over the Province of Nova Scotia or Acadia, in America, in the room of Peregrine Thomas Hopſon, Eſq;.

Conſtantinople, November 15. Our new Miniſtry ſeem to govern hitherto to the general Content and Satisfaction, the rigorous Puniſhment of the late Vizir, for Mal-Adminiſtration, making every one act with great Circumſpection; for, as this Prince is a Lover of Juſtice, he is determined to ſee it adminiſtred by his Miniſters. The Sums of Money belonging to the late Vizir, accumulated by Rapine and Venality, are ſaid to amount to 7800 Purſes, or 3,900,000 Dollars, and it is thought much is ſtill ſecreted, which they are endeavouring to find out. The Teſterdar or High Treaſurer has been depoſed, and is ſucceeded by the next in Order. This Day his Excellency Mr. Porter had his Audience of the new Vizir Zayde Efendi, to congratulate him on his Acceſſion to that high Poſt; it paſſed with the greateſt Cordiality and Aſſurances of the Sultan's Deſire to preſerve and cultivate His Majeſty's Friendſhip. The reſt of the Foreign Miniſters are preparing to follow.
